ZHEN MING, FCAS

Zhen Ming is a research analyst in the custom income strategies group at Loomis, Sayles and Company. He joined Loomis Sayles in 2020. Previously, Zhen was a senior actuarial consultant at EY in Chicago, where he was responsible for actuarial property/casualty liability reserve analysis for clients' book of business. He earned a BBA from the University of Wisconsin–Madison and an MS from the University of Chicago. Zhen is a Fellow of the Casualty Actuarial Society.